Mr McLeod

Dear Sir

I have a Picture by Wm M. Hunt a girls head 18x22. the same head as the first little cut Engraved, in Harpers Magazine for July this year, also a boys head by Carl Monginot a Pupil of Thomas Couture of Paris. Same Size, The Monginot has all the Charasteric's of the School of Couture and in technique is fully abreast with the Work of Couture. You probably know of Monginot's work in the Luxembourg at Paris

The Picture by Mr Hunt was pronounced by Artist in Paris as one of his best, these Pictures are with Doll & Richards Park Street Boston. The price for the picture by Mr Hunt one thousand, the Wrongest three hundred. I expect to go to Europe in the Course of three or four weeks, and should be glad to see them before I leave. Please be so good as to let me know if such work would suit you.

There are several examples of Mr Hunt and of Couture and his School in the Art Museum here. Genl Loring of the Art Museum thought the prices moderate but the Museum is not purchasing on account of lack of funds.

Yours Sincerly

Dear Dr. McCleod

I learned from Mr McGuire that the small bronze bust of Dr. Hall is at the Corcoran Gallery and I write to ask if you would be kind enough to send it by express to me my small wax model became slightly injured and I should like to have the bronze to correct it.

I have not asked Mr McGill's permission but I know he will not objet as I will return it to you again in a few days.

Please let me know the cost of boxing as I do not wish to put you to any expence about it. If the box is filled with sawdust no other packing for the bust will be necessary. I hope this will not be to much trouble

W. W. Corcoran Esqr.

Dear Sir

Twenty five years ago when a few resident artists desired to have an exhibition at Washington, I was myself among the number. You enabled them to do so by generously furnishing them a room for the purpose. Thus was formed the Washington art association

You then spoke of your intention to present to Washington at a future day the beautiful gallery of Art now so much and so deservedly appreciated by all lovers of art as well as by your fellow citizens

In accordance with a resolution then formed each artist should in the course of time produce something worthy for a place in your gallery. I selected for my subject Japan, a country of whose interesting history and costumes the world generally knows so little. On this your eighteenth birthday I take the pleasure in presenting you, who has done more for art than any other american citizen, a copy of my work germans edition, the english edition not having yet appeared

The original paintings are destined for the Art gallery upon your own terms.

That my labors are not entirely unworthy has been testified to by my great teacher, Alexander von Humboldt, and more recently by my long-time friend and companion the late Bayard Taylor, extracts from whose letters I beg to enclose you herewith.

May you long live to enjoy the results of your generosity and the love and respect of your fellow citizens, is the wish of

Your sincere friend

Wm Heine

In dusting the "Stuart Hall," this morning, my brother accidentally knocked off one of the legs of the "deer" of "Diana the Huntress." It is unnecessary to say how much we regret it, particularly now while Ben is absent, but hope it can be restored.

My Dear Sir

You will see that Mr. Sullivan has delivered the enclosed pass from Washington to Chicago, advising him to let us hear from him as soon as possible. The time is so short before the opening (Sept. 8th) I fear he will not be able to finish many of the cases. With many thanks for your kind assistance in the matter, I am
